CASE NUMBER

- e. Claims of exemption resulting from a change of circumstances, whether after denial of a previous claim or expiration of the time for claiming exemptions, may be asserted as provided in Code of Civil Procedure section 482.100.
- f. You may obtain a determination at the hearing whether property not described in the application is exempt from attachment. Your failure to claim that property not described in the application is exempt from attachment will not preclude you from making a claim of exemption with respect to the property at a later time.
- g. You may also obtain a determination at the hearing whether the amount sought to be secured by the attachment shall be reduced by
 - (1) the amount of any money judgment in your favor and against plaintiff that remains unsatisfied and enforceable,
 - (2) the amount of any indebtedness of the plaintiff that you have claimed in a cross-complaint filed in the action if your claim is one upon which an attachment could be issued,
 - (3) the amount of any claim asserted by you as a defense in the answer pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 431.70 if the claim is one upon which an attachment could be issued had an action been brought on the claim when it was not barred by the statute of limitations, or
 - (4) the value of any security interest in your property held by plaintiff to secure the indebtedness claimed by plaintiff, together with the amount by which the value of the security interest has decreased due to the act of the plaintiff or a prior holder of the security interest.
- h. The amount to be secured by an attachment is determined pursuant to the following statutes:
 - (1) Code of Civil Procedure section 482.110. A writ of attachment may include an estimate of the costs and allowable attorney fees.
 - (2) Code of Civil Procedure section 483.010. An attachment may issue on a claim for $500 or more based on a contract, express or implied, exclusive of attorney fees, costs, and interests. If the claim was originally secured by an interest in real property (e.g., a mortgage or trust deed), an attachment may issue only if the security has become valueless or decreased in value to less than the amount owing on the claim, through no fault of plaintiff or the security holder (if different from plaintiff).
 - (3) Code of Civil Procedure section 483.015. The amount to be attached includes the amount of the indebtedness claimed by plaintiff, plus estimated costs and allowable attorney fees, reduced by the sum of the following:
 - (a) the amount of any unsatisfied money judgment held by defendant against plaintiff;
 - (b) the amount of any indebtedness of plaintiff claimed by defendant in a cross-complaint filed in the action (if a writ of attachment could issue on the claim);
 - (c) the amount of any cross-demand for money owed by plaintiff to defendant that is barred by the statute of limitations (but assertable as a Code of Civil Procedure section 431.70 defense) if the debt was one upon which a writ of attachment could have been issued before the statute of limitations ran; and
 - (d) the amount of any security interest held by plaintiff in defendant's property, together with any decrease in the value of the underlying security caused by plaintiff or a prior security holder.
